

Jesus Washes The Disciple's Feet
(John 13:1-17)

I. Jesus' _____ - v.1-3; 11

Packer writes "The impression of Jesus which the Gospels give is not that He was wholly bereft of _____ and _____, but that He _____ on both _____."

1) He knew His _____ had _____. (2:4; 7:30; 8:20)
Jesus had lived in the _____ of the _____. A _____ represents something that is _____ and _____. The _____ event in all of _____ is Jesus' _____. He knew it was near.

2) He knew He was _____ to the _____. "The joy" set before Christ in Hebrews 12:2 may speak of the _____, but more likely means that Jesus' greatest _____ and joy was the _____ of His _____ through _____ to Him.

3) He knew the Father had _____ things into _____. (v.3)

4) He knew He had _____. (v.3) Jesus knew He _____ the _____, the _____ of _____, and Himself _____.

5) He knew that _____ would _____ Him. (v.11)

v.2 - Wiersbe writes "The word 'put' in 13:2 literally means 'to _____'. It reminds us of the fiery _____ of the _____ one (Eph. 6)." Ryle adds it "describes the way in which _____ works. He _____ into the heart of those he _____ the seeds of _____ _____ is one of his chief _____. The sin of man consists in opening his heart to the _____, giving it a place, and letting it sink down."

v.1 - To love means to be _____ to someone's _____. To the very end Jesus gave His Disciples what they _____ the _____.

II. Jesus' _____ of _____ - v.4-12a

v.4-5 - As an _____ remembering this scene _____ years later, _____ was still struck with how _____ each _____ of Jesus was. A point for us is that the _____ Jesus teaches here must become _____ steps for _____.

III. Peter's _____ - v.6-10

We need to remember several key lessons from v.7.

- _____ often _____ that do not _____ to _____. (Romans 11:33)
- God does not always give _____ for what He _____ in our _____. (Hebrews 12:5-11)
- We are _____ when we _____ God's _____ and _____.