

Paul's Message To Athens (Part 1)

2/23/25 (Acts 17:22-34)

I. Paul's _____ of _____ - v.22-23

v.22-23 - Paul perceived they were _____ and _____. For him to say "What" and "this" in v.23 shows that he was _____ saying their _____ was actually for _____ God.

II. _____ The _____ - v.24; 26a

Paul preached to Jews by appealing to _____ by _____, but he preached to _____ by first appealing to God's _____. Like the Bible itself, Paul began with God as _____ and ended with God as the _____.

v.26 - Paul attacked the _____ with which the Greeks looked _____ on _____ people. Those who _____ people for being _____ display their _____ since we _____ from the _____ person.

v.24 - Creation reveals God's _____, _____, _____, _____ and _____.

v.24 - Belief in _____ contradicts the _____ of _____ that things tend to go from a _____ to a _____ state (_____), as well as the massive _____ in the _____ record of supposed _____ species.

III. The _____ of God - v.23; 24c-25a; 29

v.23 - God is a _____ (John 4), yet He has now _____ Himself through _____, our _____, _____, the _____ and _____.

v.24c - Paul wanted them to understand that God:

- Is way too _____ for their _____ (I Kings 8:27)
- Does not need a _____ for _____, _____ or His _____
- Cannot be _____ by mankind's _____ or mental _____

v.25a - We should _____ God and _____ Him _____, but never thinking He _____ them.

IV. The _____ of God - v.24b; 26b

v.26b - God does nothing _____ from a sudden _____, because He already _____ it in _____. The _____ and _____ of _____ is predetermined by God and does not rely on man's _____ or _____. (Dan. 4:25)

V. The _____ of God - v.25b; 28a

v.25-26 - The combination of v.25b with v.26b and a study of _____ and _____ shows how especially _____ God has been to those who live in _____.

Paul's Message To Athens (Part 1)

2/23/25 (Acts 17:22-34)

I. Paul's _____ of _____ - v.22-23

v.22-23 - Paul perceived they were _____ and _____. For him to say "What" and "this" in v.23 shows that he was _____ saying their _____ was actually for _____ God.

II. _____ The _____ - v.24; 26a

Paul preached to Jews by appealing to _____ by _____, but he preached to _____ by first appealing to God's _____. Like the Bible itself, Paul began with God as _____ and ended with God as the _____.

v.26 - Paul attacked the _____ with which the Greeks looked _____ on _____ people. Those who _____ people for being _____ display their _____ since we _____ from the _____ person.

v.24 - Creation reveals God's _____, _____, _____, _____ and _____.

v.24 - Belief in _____ contradicts the _____ of _____ that things tend to go from a _____ to a _____ state (_____), as well as the massive _____ in the _____ record of supposed _____ species.

III. The _____ of God - v.23; 24c-25a; 29

v.23 - God is a _____ (John 4), yet He has now _____ Himself through _____, our _____, _____, the _____ and _____.

v.24c - Paul wanted them to understand that God:

- Is way too _____ for their _____ (I Kings 8:27)
- Does not need a _____ for _____, _____ or His _____
- Cannot be _____ by mankind's _____ or mental _____

v.25a - We should _____ God and _____ Him _____, but never thinking He _____ them.

IV. The _____ of God - v.24b; 26b

v.26b - God does nothing _____ from a sudden _____, because He already _____ it in _____. The _____ and _____ of _____ is predetermined by God and does not rely on man's _____ or _____. (Dan. 4:25)

V. The _____ of God - v.25b; 28a

v.25-26 - The combination of v.25b with v.26b and a study of _____ and _____ shows how especially _____ God has been to those who live in _____.