

Almost Persuaded - 11/9/25 (Acts 26:24-32)

I. Paul _____ A _____ - v.24-25

v.24 - Farrar writes "These facts and revelations were _____ to _____ . . . He could only listen open-mouthed to this impassioned tale of _____; _____; ancient _____; and of a Jewish Prophet Who had been _____; had _____ from the _____; was _____; and Who could _____ sins."

II. Paul _____ Agrippa For A _____ - v.26-27

Paul's point in v.26b is that the events of Jesus' _____, _____ and _____ were both _____ and traceable to ancient _____. _____ who saw Jesus resurrected were still _____.

v.26 - MacArthur writes "The primary goal of Paul's testimony was _____ to exonerate _____, but to _____ Agrippa." We must be _____ in our evangelism and discipleship, yet give special attention to those who are most _____ and potentially most _____. (II Timothy 2:2) _____ and _____ are good signs to look for.

v.27 - Christians must _____ sinners to a _____ without _____ those who are not _____.

III. Agrippa _____ His _____ - v.28-29

Almost Persuaded - 11/9/25 (Acts 26:24-32)

I. Paul _____ A _____ - v.24-25

v.24 - Farrar writes "These facts and revelations were _____ to _____ . . . He could only listen open-mouthed to this impassioned tale of _____; _____; ancient _____; and of a Jewish Prophet Who had been _____; had _____ from the _____; was _____; and Who could _____ sins."

II. Paul _____ Agrippa For A _____ - v.26-27

Paul's point in v.26b is that the events of Jesus' _____, _____ and _____ were both _____ and traceable to ancient _____. _____ who saw Jesus resurrected were still _____.

v.26 - MacArthur writes "The primary goal of Paul's testimony was _____ to exonerate _____, but to _____ Agrippa." We must be _____ in our evangelism and discipleship, yet give special attention to those who are most _____ and potentially most _____. (II Timothy 2:2) _____ and _____ are good signs to look for.

v.27 - Christians must _____ sinners to a _____ without _____ those who are not _____.

III. Agrippa _____ His _____ - v.28-29

v.28 - It seems that _____ kept Agrippa from becoming a Christian. To admit belief in the prophets may have made him _____ to the _____, but to _____ it would have _____ the _____.

v.29 - Despite his many _____ resulting from being an outspoken _____, Paul clearly has no _____ or _____ from obeying Christ.

IV. A _____ Into _____ - v.26-27

v.26-27 - Since it was well-known that Agrippa had an _____ with his _____, this scene illustrates that no _____, and no _____ of _____, puts one outside of the _____ of God to _____ them. We must not _____ where _____ does not.

V. Paul Is _____ - v.30-32

Profitable lessons about evangelism from this text include:

- Paul _____ evangelistic _____ in all _____.
- Our evangelism should _____ those who are _____ to it.
- Evangelism must be accompanied by _____.
- Our evangelism should boldly _____ people to _____ a _____ about Jesus.
- The _____ of our evangelism always come from _____.

v.28 - It seems that _____ kept Agrippa from becoming a Christian. To admit belief in the prophets may have made him _____ to the _____, but to _____ it would have _____ the _____.

v.29 - Despite his many _____ resulting from being an outspoken _____, Paul clearly has no _____ or _____ from obeying Christ.

IV. A _____ Into _____ - v.26-27

v.26-27 - Since it was well-known that Agrippa had an _____ with his _____, this scene illustrates that no _____, and no _____ of _____, puts one outside of the _____ of God to _____ them. We must not _____ where _____ does not.

V. Paul Is _____ - v.30-32

Profitable lessons about evangelism from this text include:

- Paul _____ evangelistic _____ in all _____.
- Our evangelism should _____ those who are _____ to it.
- Evangelism must be accompanied by _____.
- Our evangelism should boldly _____ people to _____ a _____ about Jesus.
- The _____ of our evangelism always come from _____.