

Paul Leverages Roman Citizenship

7/27/25 (Acts 22:21-30)

I. The _____ Display _____ For _____ - v.21-23

v.22 - These Jews could not imagine _____ becoming the people of _____ as _____. Stott writes “In their eyes _____ (making Gentiles into _____) was fine; but _____ (making Gentiles into _____ without _____ making them _____) was an _____. It was tantamount to saying that Jews & Gentiles were _____.”

v.22 - Their anger was not in _____ of _____. It was rooted in _____ and _____.

v.24 - Typical floggings used _____ soldiers _____ blows. To stretch the victim out, just _____ the _____, left them totally _____. Bruce writes “If a man did not actually _____ under the scourge, he might well be _____ for _____.”

v.24-25 - The ESV Study Bible states “Roman _____ flogging a Roman _____ without a _____ or a formal _____.”

v.25, 29 - Perhaps Paul’s _____ in _____ his Roman citizenship here and in Acts 16:35-39 was to secure _____ for him and the _____ Church.

v.25 - In the Parable of the _____ _____ in Luke 16:1-9, Jesus was not _____ the man’s _____, but how he _____ his _____ and _____ to _____ his life.

A lesson from v25 and Luke 16:1-9 is to consider how we can _____ our _____ in _____ life to _____ a _____ for ourselves and _____.

v.28 - Technically, Roman _____ was _____ for _____, but because it provided so much _____ and _____ many would _____ what it _____ to _____ it, and _____ officials would _____.

v.28 - _____ citizenship then, and _____ citizenship now are extremely _____, but they _____ to the _____ value of being a _____ of _____, which can only be _____ as a _____ from _____.

Paul Leverages Roman Citizenship

7/27/25 (Acts 22:21-30)

I. The _____ Display _____ For _____ - v.21-23

v.22 - These Jews could not imagine _____ becoming the people of _____ as _____. Stott writes “In their eyes _____ (making Gentiles into _____) was fine; but _____ (making Gentiles into _____ without _____ making them _____) was an _____. It was tantamount to saying that Jews & Gentiles were _____.”

v.22 - Their anger was not in _____ of _____. It was rooted in _____ and _____.

II. Paul _____ His _____ - v.24-29

v.24 - Typical floggings used _____ soldiers _____ blows. To stretch the victim out, just _____ the _____, left them totally _____. Bruce writes “If a man did not actually _____ under the scourge, he might well be _____ for _____.”

v.24-25 - The ESV Study Bible states “Roman _____ flogging a Roman _____ without a _____ or a formal _____.”

v.25, 29 - Perhaps Paul’s _____ in _____ his Roman citizenship here and in Acts 16:35-39 was to secure _____ for him and the _____ Church.

v.25 - In the Parable of the _____ in Luke 16:1-9, Jesus was not _____ the man’s _____, but how he _____ his _____ and _____ to _____ his life.

A lesson from v25 and Luke 16:1-9 is to consider how we can _____ our _____ in _____ life to _____ a _____ for ourselves and _____.

v.28 - Technically, Roman _____ was _____ for _____, but because it provided so much _____ and _____ many would _____ what it _____ to _____ it, and _____ officials would _____.

v.28 - _____ citizenship then, and _____ citizenship now are extremely _____, but they _____ to the _____ value of being a _____ of _____, which can only be _____ as a _____ from _____.

