

The Parable of the Laborers

7/18/21 (Matthew 20:1-16)

Parables emphasize _____ ideas. Too much emphasis on obscure _____ can _____ clear Bible truths. That all received a denarius does not _____ clear Bible teaching that at the _____ will receive according to their _____. (I Cor. 3)

Since this parable is about the kingdom of heaven MacArthur writes "The vineyard is therefore the _____ itself, the Landowner is _____ the _____, and the Foreman is the _____, _____. The laborers are _____, and the _____ is eternal life, which all received equally for trusting Christ. The work day is the believer's _____ of _____ to His Lord."

I. God is _____ Than _____

Due to the _____ of _____ our human _____ can give us a _____ view. _____ is always _____, even when we think _____ isn't.

v.11-12 - We often _____ because we tend to evaluate God's _____ by _____ our present _____ with _____.

II. God Gives _____ to _____ He _____

It is God's _____ to do what He _____ with His _____. He is _____ over _____ things. This applies to how He _____ earthly _____, how He will later _____ Christians, and even to _____ He gives _____.

Romans 9:14-16 - The _____ of God's _____ is clearly taught through Scripture. (Rom. 9, Eph. 1-2, John 6)

The _____ is that _____ have _____ and deserve _____. We do not understand _____ until we understand that God does not _____ to _____ it to _____. Then it is a _____.

III. _____ Appearances May _____ Reflect _____

The early workers in v.1 may represent the _____. That they will _____ in the renewed world does not necessarily ensure that they will be _____ in _____.

The early workers in v.1 may represent _____ who had a _____ with God, or the first _____ Christians. Yet believing _____ receive the same _____ with God and are made equal _____.

The early workers in v.1 may represent those who are _____ in _____ life and _____ God _____ than others on earth.

The Parable of the Laborers

7/18/21 (Matthew 20:1-16)

Parables emphasize _____ ideas. Too much emphasis on obscure _____ can _____ clear Bible truths. That all received a denarius does not _____ clear Bible teaching that at the _____ will receive according to their _____. (I Cor. 3)

Since this parable is about the kingdom of heaven MacArthur writes "The vineyard is therefore the _____ itself, the Landowner is _____ the _____, and the Foreman is the _____, _____. The laborers are _____, and the _____ is eternal life, which all received equally for trusting Christ. The work day is the believer's _____ of _____ to His Lord."

I. God is _____ Than _____

Due to the _____ of _____ our human _____ can give us a _____ view. _____ is always _____, even when we think _____ isn't.

v.11-12 - We often _____ because we tend to evaluate God's _____ by _____ our present _____ with _____.

II. God Gives _____ to _____ He _____

It is God's _____ to do what He _____ with His _____. He is _____ over _____ things. This applies to how He _____ earthly _____, how He will later _____ Christians, and even to _____ He gives _____.

Romans 9:14-16 - The _____ of God's _____ is clearly taught through Scripture. (Rom. 9, Eph. 1-2, John 6)

The _____ is that _____ have _____ and deserve _____. We do not understand _____ until we understand that God does not _____ to _____ it to _____. Then it is a _____.

III. _____ Appearances May _____ Reflect _____

The early workers in v.1 may represent the _____. That they will _____ in the renewed world does not necessarily ensure that they will be _____ in _____.

The early workers in v.1 may represent _____ who had a _____ with God, or the first _____ Christians. Yet believing _____ receive the same _____ with God and are made equal _____.

The early workers in v.1 may represent those who are _____ in _____ life and _____ God _____ than others on earth.